

“Robin is a gifted speaker who is completely comfortable before the audience. Her knowledge of the Word of God is evident in her presentation with scripture references relevant to the message and life applications for clarity of scripture.”

– Sheila Kovacs, Licensed Pastoral Counselor at Freedom Christian Counseling Center

Robin R. King

REDEEMED AND REAL...IN RELENTLESS
PURSUIT OF JESUS

Robin will equip women to:

- Replace regret of the past with hope for the future.
- Discover the joy of living for Christ through the transforming power of His Word.
- Experience peace, joy, and contentment amid shattered dreams.
- Live a fearless, Christ-like life in a “culture clash” world.

Robin has a heart for God’s Word and a passion for sharing it with others. She loves to rise early in the morning to experience those “ah-ha” moments from scripture and desires for women to know the reality and power of God’s Word in their life. Robin’s mission statement comes from Romans 1:5 – “This undeserving sinner has been sent out to tell all people everywhere the great things God has done for me so they, too, will believe and obey Him.”

As the teacher of a multi-generational Ladies’ Sunday School class, Bible Study Leader, and full-time worker in the secular world, Robin has a unique understanding of the challenges women face as they strive to live a Christ-like life in today’s world. Not afraid to be “real” as she shares her life experiences, this wife, mom, and grandmother, seeks to encourage women journeying through the ever-changing seasons of life.

Robin is a life-long resident of the “Bull City,” Durham, NC. While she’s never cleaned a fish, she has been married to Rod, the “Big Eye Crappie Man” for over 30 years. She is mother to Caitlin, mother-in-law to Bradley, and “Bobbie” to her sweet granddaughter, Lillie! Robin makes her bed every day, has a song and dance move for every situation, is an avid NC State Wolfpack fan, and attempts to consistently exercise with enthusiasm. A self-professed lover of sweets, she considers herself a connoisseur of Rice Krispie Treats!

Robin's desire is for all women to enjoy a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Therefore, she weaves the Gospel into every message.

Speaking Topics

Redeemed From the Past, Redeemed For the Future

Are you dwelling in regret? God promises he is doing a “new thing” but too often our past sins, failures, disappointments, and decisions keep us stuck in the “old thing”. Robin shares her own life experiences and the truth of God’s Word to encourage women to:

- Replace regret of the past with expectation for the future.
- Believe God’s promises for the future resulting in peace in the present.
- Trade comfortable for trust, leading to adventurous faith.
- Break free from captivity of the past to walk in the freedom of new life.

Redeemed and Relevant In Real Time

Do you feel like you’re swimming upstream in a downstream world? Living the Christ-like life can be challenging in today’s culture. In this message, Robin encourages women with Biblical truth for the daily battle enabling them to:

- Overcome self and worldly myths to embrace their identity in Christ.
- Choose action over apathy enabling them to find power in God’s purpose for their life.
- Develop strategy to stand out and stand firm when facing opposition.
- Trust God to do the extraordinary with the ordinary.

I've Got Gifts, She's Got Gifts, All God's Children Got Gifts!

Each one of us is “fearfully and wonderfully made” with different gifts and callings. Why then, is there tension and division between women? In this message Robin will help women “bridge the divide” by inspiring them to:

- Embrace their own unique God-given gifts and calling to avoid the snare of the comparison trap.
- Learn to accept and value differences leading to nonjudgmental and nurturing connections.
- Intentionally engage in multi-generational and multi-cultural conversation resulting in new experiences, viewpoints, and mentoring relationships.

Thank you for considering Robin R King for your next event. She will be happy to develop a message tailored to your event and audience.

Stand By Me, All I Want Is A Friend!

Every woman desires and needs the friendships of women but developing good friendships can be difficult! Using Biblical examples, Robin helps women discover how to sow the seeds of friendship. In this session, women will learn to:

- Recognize and appreciate the qualities of genuine and authentic friendships.
- Accept and value differences resulting in nonjudgmental and nurturing connections.
- Establish boundaries to promote and nurture healthy relationships.
- Navigate real life in real time while keeping friendships intact.

Shattered Dreams and Broken Hearts

We all have high hopes and expectations of how we think life should be but quite often it doesn’t go the way we plan. As a result, we’re left holding shattered dreams and broken hearts. In this message, Robin shares her own life experiences as she encourages women with truth from God’s Word to:

- Begin the journey from pain to peace.
- Exchange disappointment and discouragement for promise and purpose.
- Apply the lessons of the past enabling them to trust God with the future.
- Discover an ending is the gateway to a new beginning.

Finding the Treasure Amid the Tinsel (Christmas)

We have grand expectations for Christmas and make the greatest of preparations, but too many times our excitement turns to exhaustion when our responsibilities overwhelm us. In this Christmas message Robin helps women to:

- Make the right preparations leading to right expectations.
- Exchange the extravagance for the extravagant One.
- Unwrap, celebrate, and share the real joy and gift of Christmas.

“Robin teaches the Word of God uncompromised and with unabashed passion. She conveys the expository truth that will cause the chains that bind you to be released, so you can find new freedom in Christ.”

– Susan Thayer, Retreat and Event Planner, Ridgecrest Baptist Church Women’s Ministry

“Robin has a special gift of sharing God’s Word in a way that can be understood by everyone. She applies scriptures to everyday life situations and shares her own experiences and how God spoke to her through them.”

– Bonnie Lee, Retreat Attendee and Business Owner

For additional topics and more information contact Robin at Robin.king63@gmail.com or visit Robinrking.com